"SEC. 339. ADDITIONAL INVESTMENT IN AMERICA.—(a) Effective upon the date of enactment of this Act, the fiscal year 1993 discretionary spending limits set forth in section 601(a)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 are amended for all purposes of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 and the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Act of 1974, as follows:

(1) the outlay limit for the domestic category shall be increased by $400,000,000; and

(2) the outlay limit for the international category shall be reduced by $400,000,000

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Office of Management and Budget and the Congressional Budget Office shall recalculate all adjustments to fiscal year 1993 discretionary spending limits required under section 251(b) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 based on the amendments required in subsection (a) and shall report the revised limits to the Congress in the report to Congress for this Act that is required under section 251(a)(7) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, and such revised limits shall be valid as if made pursuant to section 251(b) of the Act.

(c) The Congress reaffirms that the deficit reduction assigned to the Committees on Appropriations in the 1993 Concurrent Budget Resolution (H. Con. Res. 287) shall be achieved. The total of the first four domestic discretionary appropriations bills passed by the House is $154,000,000 below their outlay targets. Additional savings are expected to be made from the six remaining non-defense bills. The Congress intends and commits that the final appropriations bills for fiscal year 1993 sent to the President will fully comply with their existing deficit reduction target.

After some further time,

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DE LA GARZA, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. BOUCHER, Chairman, reported that the Committee, having had under consideration said bill, had directed him to report the same back to the House with sundry amendments adopted by the Committee with the recommendation that the amendments be agreed to and that the bill, as amended, do pass.

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the amendments and the bill.

The following amendments, reported from the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, were agreed to:

Page 6, line 2, strike "provide the required local match and are no more than 200 miles from a large hub airport:" and insert "and provide the required local match:."

SEC. 399. (a) Title VI of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. App. 1421-1433) is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

"SEC. 614. DUTY TIME OF FLIGHT ATTENDANTS.

"(a) RULEMAKING PROCEEDING.—Not later than 60 days after the date of the enactment of this section, the Secretary shall initiate a rulemaking proceeding for the purpose of establishing limitations on duty time for flight attendants, including minimum rest requirements.

"(b) FINAL REGULATIONS.—Except in any case in which the prohibitions referred to in subsection (c) take effect, the Secretary shall issue, not later than 240 days after the date of the enactment of this section, final regulations establishing limitations on duty time for flight attendants, including minimum rest requirements as follows:

"(1) For domestic and international flights, at no point during a duty period shall a flight attendant exceed a maximum of 14 hours of scheduled duty time, plus a maximum of 2 additional hours spent deadheading to return to the flight attendant's domicile. A scheduled minimum rest period (after such duty period) shall equal at least 10½ consecutive hours, block-in to block-out.

"(2) For short-range intercontinental flights, at no point during a duty period shall a flight attendant exceed a maximum of 16 hours of scheduled duty time, plus a maximum of 2 additional hours spent deadheading to return to the flight attendant's domicile. A scheduled minimum rest period (after such duty period) shall equal at least 12½ consecutive hours, block-in to block-out.

"(3) For long-range intercontinental nonstop flights, duty time shall not exceed the scheduled duty time by more than 4 hours and, in any event, shall be no greater than 20 hours of actual duty time. A scheduled minimum rest period (after such duty period) shall equal the scheduled length of the duty period.

"(4) For all flight attendants, a minimum of eight 24 consecutive hour rest periods, block-in to block-out per bid month, and at least one 24-hour consecutive rest period within every 7 calendar days. For trip pairings exceeding 7 days in length with no scheduled 24-hour rest period, a minimum of a scheduled 48-hour consecutive rest period will be provided upon return to domicile.

"(5) For all flight attendants, at least a continuous 1 hour break on any flight or segment thereof scheduled for 9 hours or more of flight time in a designated rest area.

"(c) MANDATED PROHIBITIONS.—If the Secretary does not initiate a rulemaking proceeding under subsection (a) before the 60th day following the date of the enactment of this section or does not issue final regulations under subsection (b) before the 240th day following such date of enactment, no air carrier may after such date operate an aircraft using a flight attendant who has been on duty more hours, or who has had fewer hours of rest, than those required by paragraphs (1) through (5) of subsection (b).

"(d) MODIFICATION OF MANDATED PROHIBITIONS.—The Secretary may issue regulations modifying the prohibitions contained in paragraphs (1) through (5) of subsection (b) if the Secretary determines that such modifications are in the interest of safety and transmits a copy of the modifying regulations to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate and the Committee on Public Works and Transportation of the House of Representatives. The modifying regulations may not take effect until the expiration of the 90-day period beginning on the date of the transmittal of the modifying regulations to such committees.

"(e) DEFINITIONS.—In this section, the following definitions apply:

"(1) AIR CARRIER.—The term 'air carrier' means any air carrier which is subject to the provisions of part 121 or part 135 of title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

"(2) DESIGNATED REST AREA.—The term 'designated rest area' means a passenger seat of an aircraft assigned for crew rest purposes.

"(3) DOMESTIC FLIGHT.—The term 'domestic flight' means any flight or segment of a flight worked by a flight attendant totally within the continental United States.

"(4) DUTY TIME.—The term 'duty time' means all time worked for an air carrier with respect to flight duties and shall begin at the required report time and shall end when released by the carrier. Duty time accrues until the crewmember is scheduled for a required rest period by the carrier. Time spent deadheading, either on an aircraft or by surface transportation, to or from an assignment by an air carrier, time spent ferrying, and time spent attending meetings and training shall also be considered duty time. Duty time continues during in-flight, rest periods contained in subsection (b)(5).

"(5) INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT.—The term 'international flight' means any flight worked by a flight attendant for which a take off or landing is scheduled outside the continental United States, excluding intercontinental flights.

"(6) SHORT-RANGE INTERCONTINENTAL FLIGHT.—The term 'short-range intercontinental flight' means a intercontinental flight scheduled for less than 14 hours flight time.

"(7) LONG-RANGE INTERCONTINENTAL NONSTOP FLIGHT.—The term 'long-range intercontinental nonstop flight' means a single nonstop intercontinental flight scheduled for 14 hours or more of flight time.

"(8) REPORT TIME.—The term 'report time' means a time period of at least 30 minutes prior to the scheduled departure time of the first flight or segment of a flight in a flight attendant's duty period or the time the flight attendant is required to report to work, whichever is earlier.

"(9) REST.—The term 'rest' means uninterrupted time free from all duty, block-in to block-out.

"(10) SCHEDULED FLIGHT TIME.—The term 'scheduled flight time' means the elapsed time of a flight of an air carrier based on the times shown in schedules published for the air carrier.

"(11) SECRETARY.—The term 'Secretary' means the Secretary of Transportation.

"(f) TREATMENT OF DUTY PERIOD WITH DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT SEGMENTS.—A duty period with domestic, international and intercontinental flight segments shall be treated as intercontinental flying for the purpose of calculating duty and rate requirements under this section if the majority of the flight time during that duty period is on an intercontinental segment and domestic international flying if the majority of the flight time during that duty period is on a domestic or international segment."

(b) The table of contents contained in the first section of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 is amended by adding at the end of the matter relating to title VI the following:

"Sec. 614. Duty time of flight attendants.

"(a) Rulemaking proceedings.

"(b) Final regulations.

"(c) Mandated prohibitions.

"(d) Modification of mandated prohibitions.

"(e) Definitions.

"(f) Treatment of duty period with domestic and international flight segments."

rehabilitation, and purchase of buses and related equipment and the construction of bus-related facilities $320,000,000, and there shall be available for new fixed guideway systems $897,000,000 of which—".

On page 67, after line 16, insert:

"SEC. 339. ADDITIONAL INVESTMENT IN AMERICA.—(a) Effective upon the date of enactment of this Act, the fiscal year 1993 discretionary spending limits set forth in section 601(a)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 are amended for all purposes of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 and the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Act of 1974, as follows:

(1) the outlay limit for the domestic category shall be increased by $400,000,000; and

(2) the outlay limit for the international category shall be reduced by $400,000,000

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Office of Management and Budget and the Congressional Budget Office shall recalculate all adjustments to fiscal year 1993 discretionary spending limits required under section 251(b) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 based on the amendments required in subsection (a) and shall report the revised limits to the Congress in the report to Congress for this Act that is required under section 251(a)(7) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, and such revised limits shall be valid as if made pursuant to section 251(b) of the Act.

(c) The Congress reaffirms that the deficit reduction assigned to the Committees on Appropriations in the 1993 Concurrent Budget Resolution (H. Con. Res. 287) shall be achieved. The total of the first four domestic discretionary appropriations bills passed by the House is $154,000,000 below their outlay targets. Additional savings are expected to be made from the six remaining non-defense bills. The Congress intends and commits that the final appropriations bills for fiscal year 1993 sent to the President will fully comply with their existing deficit reduction target.

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. MICHEL moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

At the end, insert the following new section:

SEC. . DEFICIT REDUCTION.

Any savings achieved under discretionary spending limits established under section 601(a)(2)(C) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 for fiscal year 1993 as a result of appropriations under this Act or any other appropriation Act shall be applied to reducing the Federal deficit for that fiscal year.

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House recommit said bill with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DE LA GARZA, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MICHEL demanded a recorded vote on agreeing to said motion, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the { Yeas ..... 268 affirmative ..... } Nays ..... 115
